

PAFTA PRESENTS

SIL SANDERS TECH TALK

SUNDAY March 10, 2024, afternoon after completion of TD test (~1PM)
Coyote Creek Parkway South, Morgan Hill CA

PAFTA is pleased to host our 2024 TD test judge and longtime/honorary club member and famous author Sil Sanders for an afternoon couple-hour Tech Talk on all matters tech in tracking, including optimal self-videoing of your tracking (training or testing), and maximizing your use of google maps to plan out tracks of a particular length in specific locations. Bring your questions and your tech!

From www.enthusiastictracking.com: "Sil Sanders has trained dogs in tracking since 1980. His own dogs are Westies. Sil trained two Westies to the VST & CT, four more to their TDX including the first Westie TDX, two for the TDU, and many for their TD. His first book, Enthusiastic Tracking, The Step-by-Step Training Handbook, 2nd ed. (1998) has been highly popular with individuals learning to track their dogs for the first time, as well as experienced instructors who use it in their own classes. In addition to Tracking, he is active in Agility, Earthdog, Nose Work, Scent Work, Rally, Obedience, Barn Hunt and always enjoys taking long walks in the hills with his favorite companions."

Entries open Feb 1 to all comers.

Closes March 1, 2024 just for the purposes of a head count – day-of comers welcome.

NO FEE, unlimited participants, we'd just like to know how many are coming because we are thinking about a light lunch spread. All of this is to entice you to come early and watch the test too!
